FILE LIGHT PROPOSAL

City Council Satisfied With Present Arrangement—England's Resignation Accepted.

Routine matters occupied the attention of the city council last Thursday evening. A most important document, full text of which is published in another column, was the report of Recorder Hurt relative to the checking up of water usage throughout the city. The report showed an addition of over $1,600 in receipts over those of last year. Report of the city park commission, covering a period of six weeks, was read and accepted. The report showed an immense amount of work accomplished during the period covered. On account of the recent resignation of Mrs. Meikle as a member of the park board, the mayor named Louis Werth to fill the vacancy. Councilman Cunningham, however, asked that the appointment be held in abeyance for the present, for reasons that he did not at that time wish to divulge, and the request was granted.

The resignation of Councilman England was accepted. Mr. England stated that he would not, after July 1, be a freeholder in Ashland and consequently would be ineligible for the position, having recently traded his holdings here for outside property, which would require much of his attention during the summer. Co-operation of the city council in the coming Fourth of July celebration was evidenced by the allowance of the committee's petition for full control of the streets and concessions during the celebration. The petition also included the installation of additional lights in the park, the same to remain in use throughout Chautauqua, and the declaring of July 3, 4 and 5 as legal holidays for the city.

The California-Oregon Power Company was lightly treated in the matter of their proposition to furnish power for street lighting purposes at the rate of 1/2 cent per candle power per month. The proposition was ordered filed by the mayor, without a protest on the part of councilmen. The city general fund is now paying the city lighting department at the rate of 1 1/2 cents per candle power per month, which is on the same basis as formerly charged by the Siskiyou company. Applications for the renting of the rock crusher and roller were read and brought out some discussion. It was stated that the crusher is at present almost submerged with dirt and that it would be better off in use. The matter was referred to the street committee with power to act. The petition of J. B. Hunter for surplus water was placed on file, the mayor expressing the opinion that the council had nothing to do with the matter.

The committee of the whole reported favorably on the matter of expending $500 for the raising of the dam at the upper intake. This improvement will be of much value to the water and light departments, as the improvement contemplates a raise of two or three feet. The electric light committee reported in the matter of the proposition of Martin brothers to sell to the city 40 acres of land where the power house stands, dismissing the proposition summarily with the assertion that the city already had good title to the land.

Ira Shoudy, O. J. Stone and E. J. Arant were named as viewers in sewer district No. 17. The matter of sewer connections on Granite street was referred to the sewer committee, it being stated that a number of property owners have not complied with the conditions of the ordinance compelling connection. E. J. Arant appeared before the council with a verbal protest against the building of a barn in his neighborhood contrary to the ordinance. It was brought out that a permit was granted for this barn about seven years ago, before the present ordinance governing barns was enacted. The question as to whether the old permit is good was a matter of some discussion. In the absence of a written protest the matter was not acted upon.

HYDROPLANE TRIP MADE.

Christofferson, Portland Birdman, Makes Successful Trial.

Vancouver Barracks, Wash.—The first hydroplane flight in this section of the northwest was made here last Wednesday by Silas Christofferson, who achieved fame recently by flying from the top of a hotel in Portland to the artillery drill grounds here in 12 minutes. The flight was a complete success, and Christofferson proved that he could handle his craft as easily as though the pontoon was not attached. The aeroplane, the same one used in making the flight from Hotel Multnomah, was landed on the shore of a body of water east of the military reservation, where it was laid on the pontoon, 16 feet long and 26 inches square. On the end of each lower plane was fastened a floater to keep the tips out of water in case the machine dipped.

The engine was started and in less than 250 feet the hydroplane rose evenly into the air. Christofferson made a circuit and came to the water easily and smoothly. It is much easier to alight on the surface of water than on land with a machine. It is probable that Christofferson will make flights in Portland during the Elks convention.

Will Raise Broom Corn.

After experimenting for several years, J. G. Miller has become convinced that broom corn will do well in this locality, and has 20 acres growing this year. He reports that it is making a very satisfactory growth and is confident of a good crop. Mr. Miller is a practical broom-maker and expects to establish the industry here and work up his crop.

"If I am chosen as a republican presidential elector for Oregon at the forthcoming election, my vote will be cast in the electoral college for the presidential choice of the republicans of Oregon as expressed at the November polls, whether it be Taft, Roosevelt or any other nominee of the national republican convention. No one is authorized to say for me that I will vote for Roosevelt or any other person whether he be the nominee of the Chicago convention or not."

HAWLEY IS LAUDED.

Memorial Day Address Strikes Responsive Chord in Virginians.

"Colonel" Hawley, as the press of the blue-blooded state of Virginia calls Congressman W. C. Hawley of this district, delivered the memorial address on May 30 at the national home for volunteer soldiers in Virginia. Mr. Hawley has always been a warm champion of the volunteer soldiers of the Mexican, Civil, Spanish-American and Indian wars, and his long experience as a student and teacher of history makes him specially fitted to comment upon the inestimable services rendered by the volunteer soldiers of the United States in times of great national danger, such as existed in the above wars.

It appears that he struck the right chords when he addressed the veterans in Virginia, more than a thousand of whom heard him, and the Virginia press, commenting on his oration, styles it one of the grandest orations ever delivered in that state.
